JAMES BARNETT

Dad drove a green and pink Buick, a hilarious-looking car with who knows how many miles on it. We thought this car was amazing because it had air conditioning. This thing was a tank. It was so wide you could sit four across the front seat comfortably. On a hot day in June, all nine of us piled in and hit the road.

That Buick had a big back window. I could crawl back there and fit just fine. In order to fit nine people in the car, four sat in the front seat, four sat in the back, and one of the smallest had to be on the floorboard or in the window. As the three youngest, Mark, Jonathan, and I took turns lying in the window or on the floorboard. One time I was tucked in the back window, and my mom noticed my arm in an odd position. She said, "James, watch out. Your arm is going to go to sleep from you lying on it that way." I said, "How? It doesn't have eyes." My siblings laughed and my mom and dad laughed. When you're the youngest in a big family, getting a laugh makes you stand tall. Mom repeatedly told that story from that day on. You know what? I didn't care if my arm fell asleep. I could see the whole wide world from that back window.

BLUE SKIES

As we left Arkansas and headed across Oklahoma, I remember the excitement. It was my first time to take a road trip, my first time to leave what I knew as normal and explore new things. Looking out that back window, the world kept getting bigger and bigger. My horizons expanded with every mile.

This trip was no accident. God was lighting in me a passion for adventure, a belief in the power of prayer, a heart for exploring His creation, and a mind open to so many new possibilities.

A DESERT PRAYER

People have asked me why I believe in the power of prayer. They ask me how I know, without a doubt, that God is listening. Well, it all started when I was four years old, deserted on the side of the road in a very hot, dry, distant land with nothing but sand for miles and miles (so we thought).

You see, the Buick's air conditioner worked fine—when it didn't overheat. After we had been driving awhile, it would sometimes quit. So, when the radiator got hot, Dad stopped the car to rest. We'd all get out and stretch our legs for a bit.

Hi! I am Candace Cameron Bure. You may know me best as “D.J. Tanner” in the hit television series Full House and Netflix’s Fuller House. I’ve also been known to take on roles in romantic comedies, mysteries and Christmas movies.

I wear a lot of different hats. Actress, wife, mother of three, producer, business woman, a talk show host on The View for two years, and a New York Times best-selling author!

I am so thankful for all of these opportunities and titles, but my most life-changing title is “Christian.” I am a Christian woman who loves Jesus and seeks to give Him the glory above all else.

Get started with our... Social Selling Business Kit

The Social Selling Kit is designed for those who want to work their business online while bringing hope and encouragement to others.

My Mary and Martha business was an unexpected answer to prayer. We couldn't afford private school tuition, and I didn't want to leave home to work. Little did I know that God had even bigger plans for me and my business. Besides tuition, my income has provided annual family vacation, payments for a new vehicle, home renovations, new furniture, and the little extras that just didn't fit into the budget. But much more than income, Mary and Martha allows me to express my two passions—one is to share my faith, and the other is to build community.

The Deluxe Business Kit has products from all different Mary & Martha collections, plus all your business supplies, so you have everything you need to get serious about your business.

I gave Mary and Martha a try without having any direct sales experience. I never dreamed it would result in so many friendships, blessings, and dreams coming true. My business paid for our fertility treatments $17,000 in five months, and our son will be nine this year. We also paid off our mortgage and are completely debt-free. So loving others and filling homes and hearts with God's truth is really a gift. And I love being able to work from home when it works for me. As DaySpring's co-founder, Dean Kerns, would say, success is simply taking the next step of obedience. So, if you're feeling the Holy Spirit nudging you to say yes to God? Follow him and watch what He will do.
